I am A Mountain

I am a mountain so very high, I can reach right up to the sky, the Torah should be, given on me, 'cuz I am as great as can be, you see.

I am much taller than you, and there are so many things I can do, the Torah should be, given on me, 'cuz I am as tall as can be, you see.

But little Har Sinai just stood there and sighed, I know I'm not tall I know I'm not wide, the Torah won't be, given on me, for I am as small as can be, you see,

But from all the mountains, Hashem chose Sinai, because he did not hold himself high, he had such simple and humble ways, from this we learn that humbleness pays.
