If Your Happy And You Know It, Mitsvos Make You Happy

If your happy and you know it clap your hands, if your happy and you know it clap your hands, If your happy and you know it and you really wana show it if your happy and you know it clap your hands.

If your happy and you know it your stamp your feet, if your happy and you know it stamp your feet, If your happy and you know it and you really wana show it if your happy and you know it stamp your feet.

מצות make you happy, מצות make you smile, smile all day long, morning and evening and also in between, six hundred and thirteen!

If your happy and you know it tap your head, if your happy and you know tap your head, If your happy and you know it and you really wana show it if your happy and you know it tap your head.

If your happy and you know it shout hooray, if your happy and you know it shout hooray, If your happy and you know it and you really wana show it if your happy and you know it shout hooray.

מצות make you happy, מצות make you smile, smile all day long, morning and evening and also in between, six hundred and thirteen!

If your happy and you know it clap your hands, if your happy and you know it clap your hands, If your happy and you know it and you really wana show it if your happy and you know it clap your hands.
