Chayei Soroh

Now it was time for Yitzchok to marry
Hashem's bracha, his children would carry

Eliezer was sent a wife to find

She must be good and kind

He took camels and jewelry the best

On his way, he sat down to rest

"Please Hashem", he said with all his might

"Help me find the girl that is right."

Then he saw Rivkah, B'suel's daughter

May I give you and your camels some water

At the moment the good deed was done

Eliezer knew that she was the one

Eliezer and Rivkah to k'naan did ride

Yitzchok took Rivkah, for his bride

Now Yitzchok at last was sure

The anan hakavod, was back at his door
