Vayeishev

Yosef and his brothers took care of Yaakov's sheep

Yosef had two dreams while he was asleep
The brothers saw Yosef, in the coat Yaakov made
They recalled his dreams and they were afraid
That Hashem's bracha would go only to him
The brothers knew there must be Twelve Sh'vatim

So they took Yosef and threw him in a pit
There were many snakes, but no water in it
They saw a wagon coming and Yehudah said
"Do not kill him, let's sell him instead."
So down to Mitzrayim, Yosef did go
He was sold to Potifar, a captain of Paraoth
